LOCAL NEWS.

Items Gathered From the Town and Country.

Thanksgiving day was quiet. Court is still in session this week. You are urged to shop early and avoid the rush.

Just a few more days and Christmas will be here.

Mr. J. Y. Savage tells us that we had less rain in November than for any month of the year.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in the graded school building.

Mrs. L. W. King, of Macon, Warren county, has our thanks for a nice fat hen sent us for our Thanksgiving dinner.

Governor Craig has granted a reprieve to R. W. Cobb so that his attorneys may have time to present the matter of asking for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment. Cobb was to be electrocuted on the 12th. Since the above was written the day of execution has been fixed for February 13th.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses and words of sympathy shown me during my recent sad bereavement. May the All Wise Father bless each one.

Yours with appreciation,
MRS. JNO. COUGHENOUR.

Giving a Demonstration.

Mr. W. E. Moss, of Henderson, salesman for the Malleable Steel Range, is with the Hardy Hardware Co., this week giving a cooking demonstration with one of these ranges. This demonstration will continue through the week and if you have not already done so you are invited to see it. Mr. Moss is a very interesting talker and he knows well how to handle the range.

Register-Britt.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Britt, on Greenwood street, Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock, Miss Estelle Britt and Mr. Henry C. Register were married, Rev. R. A. McFarland, pastor of the Baptist church, taking their vows.

The bride is very popular among her friends, and notwithstanding she has been a resident of Scotland Neck only a few months, she has made many friends.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Register and has lived here all his life. He is a young man of splendid habits and his friends congratulate him upon his happy marriage to such a winsome young woman.

They are living for the present with the bride's parents.

Celebrated Wedding Anniversary.

Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. B. I. Ailsbrook celebrated the forty-sixth anniversary of their marriage Thanksgiving day, it being the sixty-ninth birthday of Sheriff Ailsbrook as well. It was their intention to have all their children present, but because of business engagements three of the sons could not come. Those of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cherry and children, and Mrs. Wiley Cherry and children, who live near town; Mrs. D. N. Ailsbrook and Mrs. C. H. Bell, of Portsmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Ailsbrook and child, of this place. The day was spent most pleasantly by this old couple, their only regret being that their boys, Solicitor R. G. Ailsbrook, of Tarboro, and Messrs. B. I. Ailsbrook, Jr., of Norfolk, and David N. Ailsbrook, of Portsmouth, could not be at home.

Killed Himself Because of Liquor.

Rocky Mount, Dec. 1.—Mentally depressed because of his demotion for having been intoxicated Thanksgiving Day, J. R. Anderson, an Atlantic Coast Line Railway detective, stationed at Rocky Mount committed suicide in the presence of his son at his home here yesterday afternoon. He was in his room and apparently in a normal condition when he asked the boy to hand him his pistol and immediately upon receiving it, he walked to the edge of the bed, placed the revolver against the side of his head and blew his brains out, falling at the foot of his terror-stricken son. Mr. Anderson was forty-seven years old and leaves a wife and seven children. His remains were carried to Weldon where the funeral was conducted this morning.

Eye Water Before or After.

"I thought that in the fifteen years of my practice of medicine," said a physician, "I had answered almost every possible 'fool' question; but a new one was sprung on me recently. A young man came in with an inflamed eye, for which I prescribed medicine—to be dropped into the eye three times a day. He left the office, but returned in a few minutes, poked his head in the doorway, and asked 'Shall I drop this in the eye before meals or after?'—Everybody's Magazine.
